

6516208654.txt

I do not feel that legislation can be put into place for a service that I am paying for. That would be like limiting the weather Channel (a service you pay for) from broadcasting local weather because it competes with local stations.